

We'd love you to join us for lunch!

Come along for a chat and to find out

“what are clinical trials and why are they so important for cancer patients?”

Hear from and chat to cancer doctors and scientists

Everyone is welcome, whether you've been directly affected by cancer or not

When?

Monday 22nd April 2024, 11am - 3pm

Where?

The Florrie, 377 Mill St, Liverpool L8 4RF

Please let us know if you're attending, so we can make sure there's a meal for you email: livecmc@liverpool.ac.uk

text: 07341 796 000

...with your name, a contact email address or phone number and any dietary (or other) requirements we can help with

Information about the event:

Arrive any time from 10:30am for tea, coffee and biscuits

11am - 12pm

1. What is cancer and why isn't there a one-size-fits-all cure?
2. What are clinical trials and why are they so important?
3. What research and trials are we doing here in Liverpool?

12pm - 1pm – LUNCH (provided for all, free of charge)

1pm - 2pm

4. Turning science from the lab into treatments in the hospital
5. The patient experience – talks from a trials nurse and a patient about what being involved in a trial is actually like
6. How you can become involved in clinical research – where to find information on trials and why the patient voice is vital

2pm - 3pm – Question & Answer session

If you'd like to stay a bit longer, you can chat with and ask questions to cancer doctors from The Clatterbridge Cancer Centre and scientists from the University of Liverpool

Our number 1 rule is: there's no such thing as a silly question

You don't need any knowledge or experience of cancer or clinical trials to come along – in fact, we're hoping you'll learn something useful!

Spaces are limited to 100 people, so please make sure you register in advance, by emailing livecmc@liverpool.ac.uk or texting 07341 796 000

Please also RSVP if you would prefer a link to view the sessions online

You can claim back reasonable travel expenses by completing a form on the day. Petrol costs can be reimbursed at 45p per mile. Please bring receipts for all other forms of transport. Payments will be made into your bank account within 2 weeks.
